

What is it like living in Mugurameno village in Zambia?

Place Knowledge

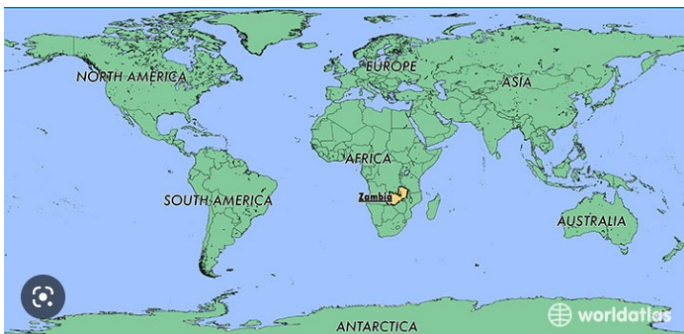

Sticky Knowledge

- I know that Zambia is in the continent of Africa.
- I know that Mugurameno is a village in Zambia.
- I know that the Zambezi River is used by the people in Mugurameno.
- I know about some of the foods that people prepare in Mugurameno.
- I know that the people in the village have to protect themselves and their homes from the wild animals that live nearby.
- I can talk about daily life in Mugurameno.

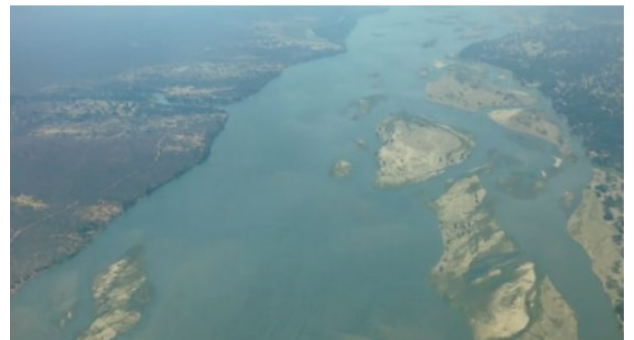

IMPORTANT VOCABULARY

Word/Phrase	Definition
Africa	The world's second-largest and second-most populous continent.
Zambia	Zambia, in southern Africa, is a landlocked country of rugged terrain and diverse wildlife, with many parks and safari areas.
River Zambezi	The fourth-longest river in Africa, the longest east-flowing river in Africa and the largest flowing into the Indian Ocean from Africa; it passes through six countries, one of which is Zambia.
Mugarameno	Name of a small village in Zambia.
wild animals	Animals that live in the area that surround the village and can pose danger to the people and their homes.
daily life	How people, including children, spend their time in the village.
village	A small settlement usually found in a rural setting.

Zambia is a country in Africa. It is shaped like a butterfly.
We live in England which is a country in Europe.

Mugarameno is situated on the banks of the River Zambezi.

There are crocodiles in the River Zambezi so villagers have built fences to keep themselves safe.